KW Habilitation

Dear Member,

Our legal counsel has advised us of a procedural matter with the Intentional Community Consortium's 2024 Annual General Meeting and has requested that we reconstitute the meeting in strict accordance with our by-laws.

As a result of this, we will hold 2024 AGM directly followed by the 2025 AGM. The details of the meeting including the link to join are below.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

Gary Gladstone
Chair

Take note that you are entitled to vote on all matters brought before the Annual General Meeting. Voting will take place during the Annual General Meeting and the process will be announced at the commencement of the Annual General Meeting. All questions shall be decided by a majority vote and shall be determined by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded. As a voting Member, you have one (1) vote. A declaration by the Chairperson of the Annual General Meeting that a resolution has been carried or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the Annual General Meeting shall be prima facie proof of such fact. You shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy, and if a proxy is desired, a copy thereof shall be available to you from the Chairperson of the Annual General Meeting, either in advance of the Annual General Meeting or at any time during the Annual General Meeting.

Materials will be made available on Intentional Community Consortium's website at AGM Materials – Intentional Community Consortium

CLASS B MEMBERS (ICC Member Agencies)

You are a non-voting Member of Intentional Consortium Community. This Annual General Meeting is a valuable opportunity for you to stay informed about Intentional Community Consortium's activities and to hear about important decisions being made. As a non-voting Member, you are welcome to attend and participate in the discussion portions of the Annual General Meeting, though you will not be able to cast a vote on official resolutions.

We encourage you to attend to learn more about Intentional Community Consortium's future plans.

If you have any questions about the Annual General Meeting, please contact Gary Gladstone, 416-830-4313

Yours Truly,
Gary Gladstone, Chair
